Doreen F. Connor elected to be a member of the American Academy of Appellate Lawyers

Manchester, NH (March, 2006) – Doreen F. Connor was elected to be a member of the American Academy of Appellate Lawyers at the Academy’s recent meeting.

The American Academy of Appellate Lawyers was founded in 1990 to recognize outstanding appellate lawyers and promote the improvement of appellate advocacy and the administration of the appellate courts. Academy membership is open only to a person who possesses a reputation of recognized distinction as an appellate lawyer. To be eligible for membership, a nominee’s practice must have focused substantially on appeals during at least the last 15 years. Academy membership is limited to 500 members in the United States. There are only three other members in New Hampshire.

Membership in the Academy is by invitation only. Candidates for membership must be nominated by a present Academy member, reviewed and approved by a Membership Evaluation Committee, and elected at a regular Academy meeting.

Connor is a member of the firm Wiggin & Nourie, P.A.
