Elizabeth M. Leonard Elected to the Board of Directors for New Hampshire Legal Assistance

Manchester, NH (September 2008) – Elizabeth M. Leonard has been elected to the board of directors for New Hampshire Legal Assistance (NHLA), a nonprofit, statewide organization offering a full range of legal services to New Hampshire’s low-income residents.

Leonard, a member of the law firm of Wiggin & Nourie, P.A., represents businesses and individuals in all areas of litigation and legal counseling including complex commercial litigation and transactions, automotive and franchise issues, class actions, and real estate matters. She also handles significant personal injury and medical malpractice cases that have resulted in multi-million dollar verdicts and settlements for her clients.
